1. Approval of Minutes

a. 9 April Meeting
(IAC-M-284)

Approved as written, subject to the following changes in the third subparagraph of item 4 on page 3: (a) add the word "cross" before the last word in the fourth line; (b) substitute a comma for the period after "survey" in the last line of the subparagraph and add "other than by a cross reference."

b. 12 April Meeting
(IAC-M-285)

Approved as written.

2. Watch Committee Reports
No. 349 and No. 350

Noted these reports.

3. Review of Crisis Situations

a. Situation in Jordan

The Chairman referred to the continuance of a crisis situation in Jordan and exchanged views with the members on various pertinent developments including the size and deployment of non-Jordanian military forces in the area, the status of the Palestinian refugees, possible Israeli moves, and other factors bearing on the ability of King Hussein to remain in power. In the course of the discussion the members also concurred in the Chairman's view regarding the desirability of [REDACTED]

b. Indonesian Situation

The Chairman introduced Ambassador Cumming to the members and invited him to comment on the situation in Indonesia. Ambassador Cumming and the members then exchanged views on Indonesian developments, with particular reference to factors influencing Sukarno's attitudes and activities and affecting the growth of Communist strength in Indonesia.

c. Greek-Turkish Relations

Mr. Armstrong referred to the possibility of a crisis situation developing with respect to Greek-Turkish relations, and the members concurred generally in this view.

5. NIE 80-57
Political Stability in Central America and the Caribbean Through 1958

a. Approved as amended.

b. Noted the findings, as amended, and approved the recommendation of the post-mortem on this estimate.

c. Noted the validity study of NIE 80-54, "The Caribbean Republics," 24 August 1954, as amended.

6. Special Estimate on Libya

After Mr. Kent referred to an urgent request by the NSC Planning Board for a special estimate on Libya, the members agreed to initiate such an estimate, to be drafted on the basis of oral contributions by the IAC representatives on 24 April, and with a target date of 7 May for IAC consideration.

7. Communication from President's Board of Consultants (Memorandum to DCI, 18 March;
IAC-M-283, item 7; IAC-M-284, item 7; IAC-M-285, item 2)

The Chairman circulated and invited comments on a draft reply to the communication from the President's Board of Consultants with respect to current intelligence activities of the intelligence community, which had been prepared on the basis of the discussion of this communication at the previous IAC meeting (IAC-M-285, item 2). Following an exchange of views on this matter, the Chairman stated that a revised draft reply would be prepared in the light of the discussion and distributed to the members for further consideration at the next regular IAC meeting.

8. Visit to Continental Air Defense Command
(IAC-M-285, item 3)

The Secretary reported that a check with members had disclosed various potential conflicts which appeared to make it impracticable to attempt to schedule a visit by IAC members to CONAD in the near future. The members therefore agreed to defer this matter and reconsider the possibility of such a trip at a later date.
